The student indicated above is applying for the Gallagher Scholarship for Study in Ireland and Europe. This scholarship, awarded to one graduate or undergraduate student per year at the University of New Mexico (UNM), provides full travel, tuition and living expenses for a year of study abroad. Students can study any subject at an Irish university, or an Irish-related subject at any university in Europe.

In a separate document, please answer the following question:

Would this student be a good candidate for the Gallagher Scholarship?

We welcome letters that address the applicant's qualifications, both academic and personal. We are looking for students who will not only excel in their chosen course of study, but who will also take advantage of the wide range of opportunities and experiences that a year of study abroad can provide.

Please attach this cover sheet to your letter. If you would like to submit the letter electronically, please e-mail it to cwr@unm.edu.

If you would prefer to submit the letter in printed form, please send or hand-deliver it to:
